   Positioned Airwallex against other fintechs, built the evaluation model, modelled the investment

3. Deliver
   Built an enterprise-focused rights package, structured the deal for network access, took it to the board

Two Dutch innovators. Max Verstappen is one of the few athletes in global sport who has successfully evolved from competitor to entrepreneur. Beyond his achievements on track, he has built a growing ecosystem spanning merchandise, ticketing, travel and motorsport, transforming his personal brand into a scalable business platform.
