ADYEN'S BRIEF

Adyen: creating financial efficiencies in F1

ADYEN'S BRIEF DEFINES FOUR PRIORITIES FOR F1

Global brand

Show how Adyen's payments can power the financial business of F1

Client relationships

Host partners, merchants and senior decision makers

Commercial growth

Win new deals, renew contracts and build pipeline

One global programme

Unite local hosting across an initial 8–10 F1 races

OUR PARTNERSHIP HYPOTHESIS

An F1 partnership can build Adyen's global brand and deepen client relationships through payments storytelling and a global hospitality programme

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

F1 gives Adyen a global, enterprise-grade stage, and payments is now one of its most contested categories

625M

A platform in growth
F1 followers in 2026, up 30.8% since 2022. New sponsorship deal value is up 165% since 2020.

#1

The audience Adyen sells to
F1 ranks #1 of five major sports on all five Adyen audiences, from senior decision-makers to early tech adopters.

457M

Where Adyen does business
F1 fans across Adyen's 22 office markets, 13 of which host a 2027 race.

4

A contested category
Stripe, Airwallex, Mastercard and Visa already partner F1 teams. Adyen is not yet in F1.

THREE ROUTES INTO F1

ROUTE 1 · DRIVER Max Verstappen
Adyen powers the Verstappen ecosystem; Verstappen Travel ticketing is the most direct fit. 2027–2030.

ROUTE 2 · TEAM Alpine F1 Team
Exclusive Financial Technology Platform Partner; Adyen powers the Team's new ecommerce. £10.0M in 2027.

ROUTE 3 · TEAM Scuderia Ferrari

01

Why Formula 1

Growth, audience, footprint and brand value: what the data says about F1 as a platform for Adyen

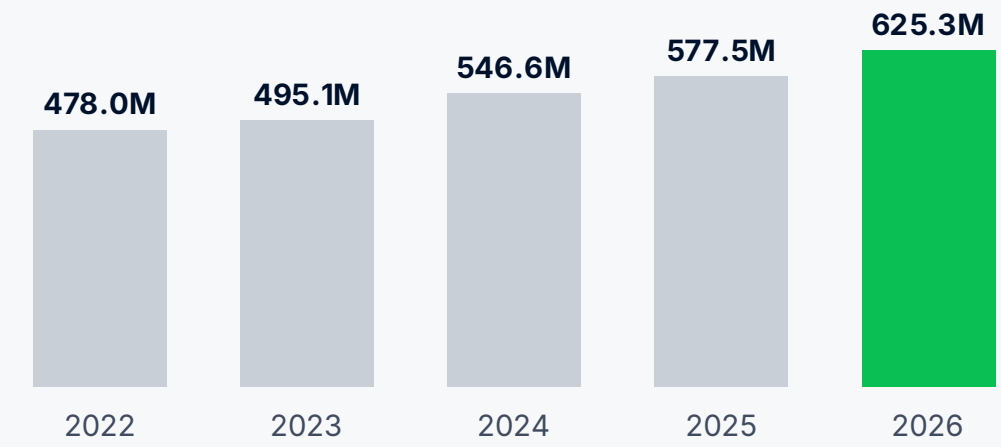

F1 is growing in audience and in commercial value

GLOBAL F1 AUDIENCE

+30.8%

2022–2026 · 147.3M additional followers

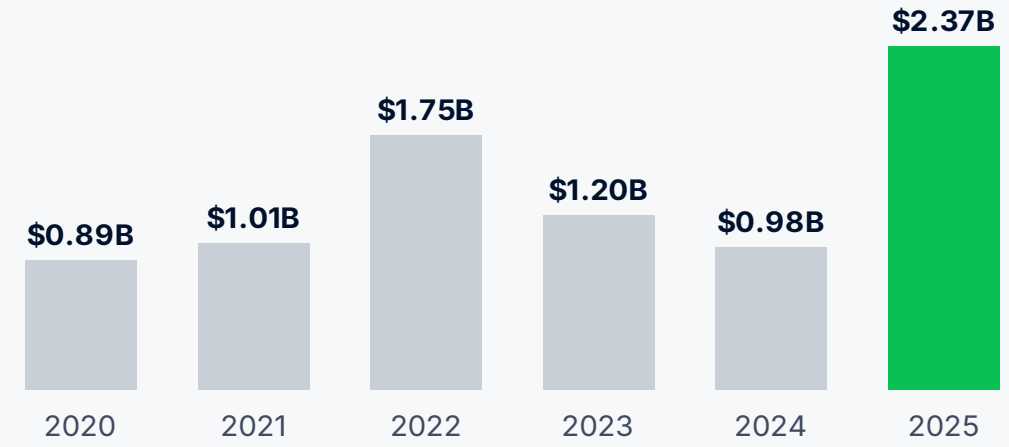

625.3M followers in 2026, +8.3% vs 2025

NEW F1 SPONSORSHIP DEAL VALUE

+165.3%

2020–2025 · new deals only, excludes renewals

125 new deals in 2025 (+28.9% vs 2020)

So what brands are paying more to be in F1. The average annual value of a new deal rose from $2.21M in 2020 to $5.78M in 2025.

Source: GWI (global audience, followers); GlobalData (new sponsorship deals only, excl. renewals). 2026 YTD: $1.91B across 139 deals, year incomplete.

F1 is the strongest sport for every audience Adyen sells to

Sport	High income	Owners / founders	Senior decision-makers	Large-company employees	Early tech adopters
Means for Adyen	Premium consumers	Merchant owners	Enterprise buyers	Enterprise accounts	New-payment adopters
Formula 1	132.4	146.9	166.6	142.8	237.9
Tennis	129.5	128.4	148.1	141.8	176.3
Cycling	113.1	124.7	139.1	120.4	181.8
Basketball	117.9	117.4	131.1	120.3	151.1
Football	108.5	117.0	121.2	111.9	131.2

F1 ranks #1 on all five measures. Higher index = stronger over-representation among the sport's fans.

237.9

Early tech adopters
31% above the next-best sport (cycling, 181.8)

166.6

Senior decision-makers
12% above the next-best sport (tennis, 148.1)

So what F1 is the only sport of the five that leads on every audience Adyen needs, from enterprise buyers to the consumers adopting new ways to pay.

Competitive landscape

Who is already using sport, and F1 in particular, to win in payments

Payments is one of F1's most contested categories

Four payment brands already partner F1 teams
Two are Adyen competitors (Stripe, Airwallex); two are card schemes (Mastercard, Visa).

Integration is the new benchmark
Airwallex sits inside McLaren's business, not just on the car.

Card schemes are partners, not blockers
Visa and Mastercard partner Adyen; Mastercard and Airwallex already co-exist at McLaren.

The model to beat: Airwallex × McLaren, integration not a logo

WHAT AIRWALLEX DID

1. Positioned the deal as business integration, embedding its financial solutions in the partner's operations.
2. Activated the IP across content, events, hospitality and performance marketing.
3. Built one B2B sports platform: McLaren in F1, plus Arsenal FC, San Francisco Giants and Essendon FC.

Reported results live in 14 days; 90% of McLaren's payments arrive within hours, 65% instantly; local payment networks in 110+ countries.

WHAT IT MEANS FOR ADYEN

- Lead with where Adyen sits inside the partner's business, not the logo.
- Show a clear line to revenue and payment volume.
- Put hospitality at the centre, connecting people across the partner's ecosystem.

BUSINESS CHALLENGE

- McLaren Racing operates across 24 race locations, with frequent international supplier payments.
- A manual process: around 30 payments per run, high FX and transfer fees, 2–5 day settlement via banks and SWIFT.
- Under F1's cost cap, efficiency frees budget for on-track performance.

AIRWALLEX SOLUTION

- Implemented in 14 days.
- Automated global payment workflows: batch payouts, approvals, faster cross-border transfers.
- Suppliers paid in local currencies; integrated with existing banking and accounting for cash-flow visibility.

Two Dutch innovators: Adyen powers the Verstappen ecosystem

Max Verstappen has built one of the most successful personal brands in global sport; Adyen has built one of the world's leading financial technology platforms. Together they can create a living case study of how high-performance businesses are built, operated and scaled. Max is an athlete entrepreneur with businesses beyond F1, so Adyen becomes the technology platform behind the Verstappen ecosystem, powering customer journeys across racing, travel, merchandise and experiences. The commercial integration creates genuine proof of performance; the marketing rights tell that story to customers, prospects and partners worldwide.

Alpine: Performance in Every Transaction, from checkout to chequered flag

Every F1 result depends on thousands of complex processes working together with speed, precision and resilience; Adyen does the same for enterprise commerce. As the Team's exclusive Financial Technology Platform Partner, Adyen powers Alpine's new ecommerce platform, making every fan purchase a live proof point. Content, race-week experiences and C-level hospitality then turn that proof into senior customer conversations, and the Team's partner network opens doors to new business.

Where Adyen sits inside [ADD: route]'s business

One platform, end to end

Adyen already runs the whole payment journey for its clients: gateway, risk, authentication, processing, acquiring and reconciliation, online and in person.

1 Power

Adyen runs the partner's payments across ticketing, ecommerce, merchandise and hospitality.

[ADD] Which flows Adyen powers

2 Prove

Live volumes and conversion data become a flagship, client-facing case study.

[ADD] KPIs to report

3 Host

Hospitality at the centre, connecting clients across the partner's ecosystem.

[ADD] Races, guests, format

4 Connect

Access to the partner's commercial network turns into qualified pipeline.

[ADD] Target partners and accounts

So what integration first, not a logo deal. Every route is tested on how deeply Adyen sits inside the partner's commercial operations.
